Mammoth Modern Insulation is manufactured in New Zealand by InsulPro Manufacturing Ltd – the first insulation company in the world to be carbonZero certified.

All Mammoth products are 100% polyester, free from formaldehyde-based binders, insecticides or any other added chemicals and are made using fibres from recycled plastic bottles.

All products listed below are made in New Zealand and are BRANZ tested – they are safe and easy to use and are backed by a 50 year manufacturer's warranty.
